

The 2009 FSU International Center

1st Annual Global Photo Competition "Capture the World" Submission Form

This is an amateur photography competition that is open to all students, faculty, staff and alumni at the Florida State University. Entries are judged on the ability to represent global and cross-cultural experience and perspectives.

You are encouraged to submit an original title, as well as a short description describing each photo, stories or anecdotes describing each photo and its meaning. These descriptions will also be considered in the judging process (100-150 words):

- What was going on in your photo?
- What were you doing when the photo was taken: study abroad, study in the U.S., service, teaching, research, internship, volunteer, etc.?
- In what way do you think it reflects on global or cross-cultural experiences?

Photos must be submitted to the International Center:

Deadline for entries: Friday, March 6th, 2009 by 5pm.

Mail or hand-deliver entries to:
